

Close WindowPrint this page

Click for more of the best photojournalism:

washingtonpost.com
CAMERA·WORKS

French President Jacques Chirac, left, flanked by Jean-Louis Levy, Aline Farhi, center behind, Françoise Kullman, right, all descents of Dreyfus, stand while marking the 100th anniversary of the rehabilitation of Alfred Dreyfus, the French Jewish army officer unjustly convicted of treason in an affair that has left an indelible mark on the nation, Wednesday July 12, 2006 in Paris. (AP Photo/Jacques Brinon; Pool)

Photo Credit: AP Photo

Most Viewed Photos (7:45 p.m. ET)

- The East's Katie Douglas, right, of the Connecticut Sun, kisses her husband Vasilis Giapalakis while holding up the MVP trophy of the WNBA All Star basketball game, Wednesday, July 12, 2006 at Madison Square Garden in New York. Douglas scored 16 points in the East's 98-82 win over the Western Conference \(AP Photo/Julie Jacobson\)
- Tracey Clark owns Housewerks in Baltimore with Ben Riddleberger.
- Smoke billows from the Rafiq Hariri International Airport in Beirut following Israeli air strikes 13 July 2006. Israeli warplanes bombed Beirut's international airport before dawn today and killed 27 Lebanese civilians in a series of raids after Israel vowed a harsh response to the killing and capture of its soldiers by Hezbollah guerrillas. AFP PHOTO/ISSAM KOUBAISSI \(Photo credit should read ISSAMA KOUBAISSI/AFP/Getty Images\)

5
ANNUA

A

A

For

L

E

D

A

ne

More